

REMARKS

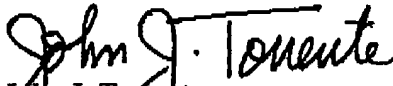

The Abstract of the Disclosure has been amended. The amendments to the Abstract conform the Abstract to the invention as now recited in independent claim 1.

The subject Amendment is directed to matters of form only. Also, it is not believed that consideration of the Amendment would take a considerable amount of additional effort on the part of the Office. Accordingly, consideration and entry of the Amendment under the provisions of 37 CFR § 1.312 is respectfully requested.

Dated: August 4, 2005

Respectfully submitted,
